<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Face masks</li></ul> The face mask is likely the most ubiquitous item of the present, central in our pursuit to keep others and ourselves safe. We have seen numerous creative interpretations of face masks that have been specially created or adapted – whether for added protection, social identity, supporting various causes or even just to make a cool fashion statement. We welcome the public's contributions of their stories of unique face mask creations. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Innovative and creative responses to COVID-19</li></ul> We have seen many innovative responses on objects that people have devised or adapted to help them or other communities face the unique circumstances and challenges of the pandemic, as well as beautiful and inspiring creative works that reflect people's thoughts on the pandemic – ranging from sketches and paintings to craft objects in different forms. We invite the public to share their innovative creations with us.	Please refer to https://go.gov.sg/nms-ccs-covid19 for contribution guidelines. For further queries, please contact the National Museum at NHB_NMS_Curatorial@nhb.gov.sg
