Title: Meditations On The Mahavakya

Composer: Rudra

Lyricist: Kathir

Ekam Eva Advitiyam

Meditations on the axiom that Shvetaketu received from his father It destroys the life of becoming someone other than what you are The preceptor of nobility wields the garland of words from the Veda Stringed with the right method, to reveal the Lord that you already are

The destruction of preconceived notions is possible but only with a purified mind You listen, then you contemplate and free yourself from the delusion By seeing that That' and 'thou' are indeed one since the dawn of time

Through this axiom the self is realised
Through this realisation you gain Immortality
Through this attainment you'll realise that you are everything
Sarvam Khalvidam Brahma

That is Brahman Thou are Brahman All is Brahman That Thou Art

Ekam Eva Adivitiyam