

Title : Fly

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

Two at a table with no words to say
Pretending to feel a love that's gone away
Nobody wants to make a move, no one's that brave

But there's one little place where I'd rather be Somewhere far from this heart that possesses me

Chorus

If I could I'd fly
Far from this love
That's somehow never enough
Fly from having to lie
And finding out why
I'm not in love

Two at the turning point of "Go or Stay"
Attempting to turn around and walk away
Letting two lives go on from here, or go to waste
But then thoughts of the past start reminding me
Of when we once believed in eternity

Repeat chorus

Music break

I wish I could fly
Far from this love
That's somehow never enough
Fly from having to lie
And telling you why
I'm not in love

Repeat chorus