

Title : My Singapore

Composer : L.R. Ferdinands

Lyricist : Mel Ferdinands

Beautiful faces of different race
Living in harmony
On this island that I call my home
Though I've travelled this world and seen different lands
There's nowhere I would rather be
Here is where I always will belong.

On my Singapore I just want to let you know
My Singapore I love you so
Where the people understand
And love their fellow man
Oh I always want to be in Singapore.

Friendly faces greet you with a smile
As you go on your way
And you know you'll never be alone
Where dreams and visions of yesterday
Are today's reality
In Singapore the place I call my home.

Oh my Singapore I just want to let you know
My Singapore I love you so
Living in equality, nowhere else I'd want to be
Oh I always want to be in Singapore.

So come on and take my hand
Make the whole world understand
That I will always love you Singapore
That I will always love you Singapore
Singapore...
Singapore...
