

Title : Jasmine

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

Night falls on islands
And waves call
Your name
Dew drops start forming
When time stops
Again
Now I can see you
In moonlight
Snow-white
You could be mine

* Jasmine I love you
I see you
Everywhere I look.
There's Jasmine
A memory
A flower pressed
Somewhere in my book
Jasmine, were you there when I awoke?

One night, one summer
One seaside, one kiss
We had one moment
One time that I miss
Sometimes I see you
In moonlight, snow white
When you were mine

Repeat *
