Title: Maybe I'm Naive

Composer:

Lyricist:

Maybe I'm naive, maybe I don't know much Maybe you think I'm a fool just to trust I may look foolish thinking that God can do Everything great men on earth dare not to

Chorus:

My Lord, my Saviour My Life, my Redeemer My Lord, my Master, I just pray Pray to simply trust and obey

Maybe I'm simple, maybe I don't think much But you know somehow my trust is enough To bring me through rough times, bring me through all my strife. Trusting Him, soothing my hurt when I cry

(Repeat Chorus twice)

Maybe I'm naive, maybe I trust too much Maybe that's what life is just all about Well, perhaps someday when you know Jesus Christ He will make trusting the difference in life

(Repeat Chorus)

Maybe I'm naive, maybe I'm naive Frankly, I'd rather be naive
