

Title : Bunga Sayang

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

In every village by the sea
There stands a tall and ancient tree
That shelters from the sky above
A tree of hope, a tree of love

It shares our joy and feels our pain
It grows with us through sun and rain
It stays so green the whole year through
And flowers when a dream comes true

Bunga sayang, bunga sayang
You are heaven's own work of art
Bunga sayang, bunga sayang
Gentle flower of the heart
