Title: Bunga Sayang

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist: Dick Lee

In every village by the sea There stands a tall and ancient tree That shelters from the sky above A tree of hope, a tree of love

It shares our joy and feels our pain It grows with us through sun and rain It stays so green the whole year through And flowers when a dream comes true

Bunga sayang, bunga sayang You are heaven's own work of art Bunga sayang, bunga sayang Gentle flower of the heart
